

Opening Access, Closing the Knowledge Gap? International Legal Scholarship Going Online (8 and 9 September 2022)

Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public International Law, Room 038

Im Neuenheimer Feld 535, 69120 Heidelberg, Germany

Time (CET)	Thursday, 8 September 2022
10.00-10.30	Registration
10.30-11.00	Introduction (Raffaella Kunz)
11.00-12.00	Panel I: Digitalization and Participation in International Legal Scholarship Lys Kulamadayil (Geneva Graduate Institute): Ableism in the College of International Lawyers Lutiana Valadares Fernandes Barbosa (Federal University of Minas Gerais): Pandemic, Maternity, and International Law's Global South Scholarship Chair: Anna Sophia Tiedeke
12.00-12.30	Group picture
12.30-13.30	Lunch
13.30-15.00	Panel II: Publishing Infrastructure and the Internationalization of International Law Daniel R. Quiroga-Villamarín (Geneva Graduate Institute): Arminius Rex: On the Postcolonial Uses of Imperial Languages in, and beyond, International Law Stewart Manley (University of Malaya): On the Publication of International Law Scholarship from the Global South Raffaella Kunz (MPIL/Collegium Helveticum) & Monika Plozza (University of Lucerne): Does the Right to Science require Open Access in the Digital Era? Chair: Sué González Hauck
15.00-15.30	Break
15.30-16.30	Key Note by Anne Peters
19.00	Evening Dinner/Dinner Speech Café-Restaurant Merlin, Bergheimer Str. 85, 69115 Heidelberg

Time	Friday, 9 September 2022
9.00-10.30	Panel III: Open Educational Resources, Digitalization and Education in International Law Tamsin Paige (Deakin Law School): A Reflection on Accessibility in Education Valentina Chiofalo (Freie Universität Berlin) & Max Milas (University of Münster): OpenRewi in a Closed Academy: Opening the Teaching of Law Paul Stewens (Geneva Graduate Institute): Beyond the Classroom: On the Value of International Law Blogs for Students Chair: Justine Batura
10.30-11.00	Coffee Break
11.00-12:00	Panel IV: The role of blogs Olabisi Akindkugbe (Schulich School of Law, Dalhousie University) & Vellore Kigwiru (Technical University of Munich's School of Social Sciences and Technology/Guest Researcher, Max Planck Institute for Innovation and Competition): The Role of Blogs in Decentering Africa's Role in the International Legal Discourse: The Case of AfronomicsLaw Blog Shubanghi Agarwalla (International Law and Global South Blog/Sidley Austin): Petitioning the Indian Government for Increased Legal Capacity in International Law: Blogging as an Everyday Practice of Relationship Making Sue González Hauck (DeZIM Instiut) & Erik Tuchtfield (MPIL): Völkerrechtsblog Chair: Sissy Katsoni
12.00-13.00	Final discussion and closing remarks (Erik Tuchtfield)

Please note: The conference takes place in hybrid format; all sessions will be recorded and made available on Völkerrechtsblog after the conference.

Practical information

Hotel venue: Hotel Premier Inn, Kurfürstenanlage 23, Heidelberg

Contact: Raffaella Kunz (kunz@mpil.de) and Daniela Rau (rau@mpil.de)