International Judicial Institutions as Law-Makers

Workshop II
Heidelberg, 15 April 2009
Workshop Programme

I. General Introduction

9.30 Workshop Opening
Short presentations of the individual contributions to the project.

On the Rule of International Courts: An Investigation of Public Authority and its Democratic Justification
(Armin von Bogdandy/Ingo Venzke)

Discussion and clarification of central concepts
We would wish to examine closer our use of, inter alia, the following concepts: law-making / court / tribunal / judicial institution; justification / legitimacy / legitimation.

11.00 Coffee Break

II. Core Issues and Actors

11.15 Law-Making by International Criminal Courts and Tribunals
(Klaus Günther/Milan Kubli)

System Building in Investment Arbitration
(Stephan Schill)

12.30 Lunch Break

13.30 The European Court of Human Rights – Judicial Constitutionalism without Politics?
(Markus Fyrnys)

Expanding the Competence to Issue Provisional Measures
(Karin Oellers-Frahm)

15.00 Coffee Break

III. Legitimating, Embedding and Contesting Authority

15.30 The Exercise of Authority amidst Regimes: The Working of General Principles
(Thomas Kleinlein)

16.30-17.00 General Discussion

19.00 Dinner at the Kulturbräuerei, Leyergasse 6, Heidelberg.